 4. Neither pre-payments nor advance payments are stipulated for executing the subject of the procurement, and the payment shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.
 5. In the case of submitting an offer in currencies: EUR or SEK, for the purpose of comparing the bids, the Ordering Party will convert the value of the bid into Polish zloty (PLN) according to table C published by the National Bank of Poland on the date of publication of the Invitation.

IX. Description of actions and criteria to be taken into consideration by the Ordering Party upon the selection of the best bid

1. The Ordering Party selects the most advantageous bid from among valid bids submitted in the proceedings on the basis of the evaluation criteria for bids which are:

Total bid price for the whole Subject of the Agreement - criterion weight 100%:

- 1.1 Credits awarded under the "Total bid price for the whole Subject of the Agreement" criterion will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$C = (C_{naj} / C_o) \times 100$$

Where:

C – means the number of credits awarded to a given bid,

C_{naj} - the lowest price among the evaluated bids,

C_o - the price of the bid subject to evaluation,

Hence, the maximum number of credits to be obtained under this subject criterion is 100 credits.

2. During the course of the research and evaluation of the bids, the Ordering Party may request the Contractors to submit explanations as regards the content of the submitted bids, as well as negotiate the content and prices of the bids with the observance of the applicable rules pertaining to the transparency and fair treatment of the Contractors.
 - 2.1 The Ordering Party reserves that it may, in particular, conduct negotiations in order to change the content of the bids in particular regarding contractual terms and provisions as for example quality warranty, terms of payment, price, improvement of the technical aspects, and after the conclusion of the negotiations, the Ordering Party may invite Contractors to submit additional bids.
3. The Ordering Party shall correct any obvious typographical errors and obvious accounting errors in the content of the bid, with consideration of the accounting consequence of corrections made, as well as and any errors consisting in non-compliance of the bid with the requirements of the Invitation, not contributing to essential changes to the content of the bid, and immediately notify the Contractor whose bid was corrected about the hereinabove.
4. The Ordering Party shall have the right to reject an bid, in particular, if it was submitted after the bids submittal date or if it is non-compliant with the requirements of the Invitation, or should there be any other reasonable circumstances effecting in non-compliance of the bid with the existing legislation.
5. The Ordering Party shall reject the bid submitted by:

- country where the seat the Contractor is premised,
2. Withdrawal from the Agreement shall be made in writing else being null and void and shall include the appropriate statement of grounds.
 3. Except the right to withdrawal from the Agreement in full, the Ordering Party reserves the right to withdraw from the Agreement only to the extent of its part indicated thereby, including the unexecuted part of it, retaining ownership and other rights of the remaining part of the subject of the Agreement. To the extent to which the Ordering Party did not withdraw from the Agreement, the provisions of the Agreement, in particular related to the payment and guarantee shall become effective, provided that the part of the Agreement from which the Ordering Party has not withdraw was properly performed.
 4. In the event of withdrawal from the Agreement, the Parties shall reserve the right to the enforcement of the contractual penalties.
 5. The Contractor shall not have the right to the compensation for the withdrawal from Agreement due to reasons on the side of the Contractor.

§ 12 FORCE MAJEURE

1. In the event of impossibility to execute obligations arising out of the subject-matter of the Agreement in relation to circumstances on which the Parties shall not have influence and which could not have been foreseen (force majeure), the Parties shall be released from mutual obligations, including an obligation for defects incurred and shall be entitled to change the dates of the Agreement's execution. As force majeure the Parties consider extraordinary causes beyond Party's reasonable control, which could not be predicted nor prevented, including but not limited to war, state of emergency, floods, fires or essential change of socio-economic environment, state of epidemic threat or state of epidemic.
2. The provisions being the subject of item 1 shall be applied respectively if the execution of obligations arising out hereof is impossible as a result of the force majeure which has affected the subcontractors of the Contractor.
3. If as a result of the operation of force majeure, the Agreement is not handled for a period of more than 2 months, each Party shall be entitled to a unilateral withdrawal from the Agreement without any consequences, by submitting an applicable declaration in writing to the second Party. The termination of the Agreement in this way takes place by mutual agreement of the Parties. However each Party declares hereby that it already agrees to terminate the Agreement in such circumstances and in this manner.
4. Each Party shall immediately inform the second Party on the formation of circumstances being the subject of item 1.
5. The Contracting Authority may request the Contractor to provide appropriate documentation of the circumstances related to the occurrence of force majeure, consisting in particular in indicating how it influenced the Contractor's or the Contractor's subcontractor's ability to perform the Contract.
